Motivate or reward your party with a golf event, Spa day or an adrenaline filled team building activity hosted in the 200 acre estate.

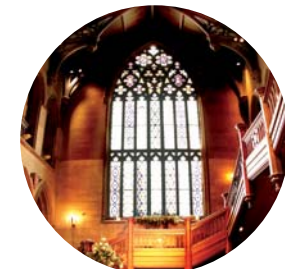

For a real treat, residential delegates can enjoy full use of the leisure facilities, including swimming pool, sauna, spa bath and the Fire and Ice experience.

invigorating

Our wide variety of conference and banqueting suites offer versatility and can be easily tailored to your preferred seating arrangements. The Somerville Suite, with integral equipment is a stylish example of a modern meeting room and benefits from natural daylight.

The soaring stained glass window and towering columns make The Great Hall a totally unique venue which offers exclusivity from its own private entrance and car park. The elegant Terrace Rooms accommodate up to 120 delegates offering an abundance of natural daylight as they overlook the golf course.

baronial elegance

The award winning two 'AA Rosette' Library and Print Room Restaurant offers individual choices to suit individual tastes from the à la carte menu. More informal dining is taken in our very own pub, the Keepers Lodge or alternatively, meals can be taken in your conference suite or the Great Hall makes a magical banquet setting.

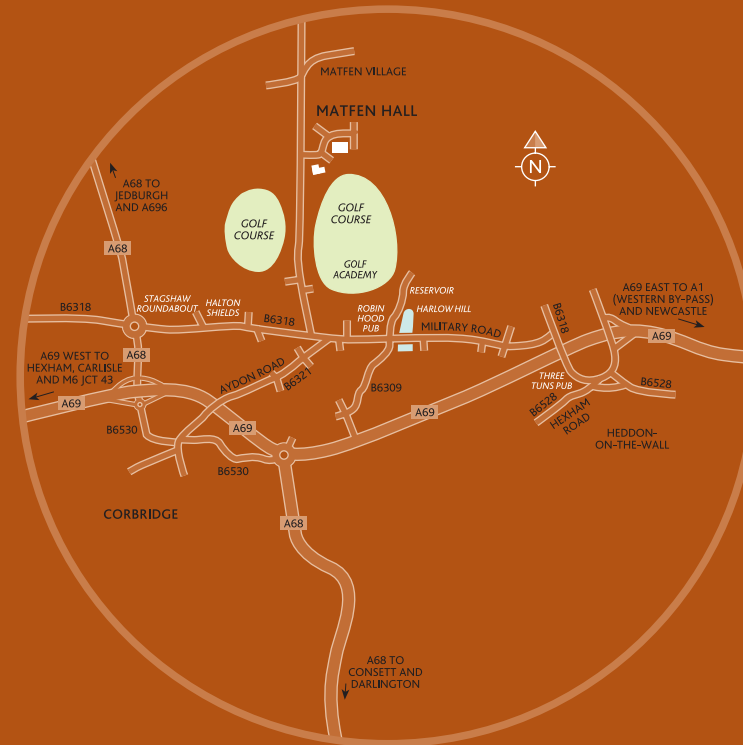

Sir Edwards Room and the Print Room are perfect for private dining. Many menu options are available including the Gueridon Trolley, personally carved by one of our chefs. Our Event Co-ordinator can easily tailor dining choices to your requirements.

Directions

If heading north or south on the A1 take the A69 signposted Hexham and Carlisle. Exit the A69 at Heddon on the Wall and pick up the B6318, just before the Three Tuns public house, heading west towards Chollerford. Continue on the B6318 for seven miles, the turning to Matfen is on the right.

From the A68, join the B6318 heading east at the Stagshaw roundabout, two miles north of Corbridge. Follow signs to Heddon on the Wall / Newcastle, the Matfen turning is on the left after two and a half miles.

Your meeting package

For day delegates and 24 hour meetings we have created a package to include all the necessary ingredients for a successful meeting, which include:

- Conference room hire
- Welcome coffee and biscuits
- Mid-morning refreshments
- Two course hot buffet lunch with coffee
- Afternoon refreshments
- Conference stationery and flip-chart
- Data projector

In addition to our standard coffee breaks, up-grade to a themed 'Northumbrian' or 'healthy option' break - please speak to our Event Co-ordinator for details.
