Conference & Banqueting Facilities

Choose from a selection of air conditioned conference and meeting rooms. The Stanley Suite accommodates up to 120 delegates and the traditional oak panelled Alderley Suite and Oak Suite are ideal for board meetings, training courses and private dining. We also have smaller meeting rooms which can accommodate your more private meeting requirements.

From arrival to departure our main priority is to look after your every need, ensuring that all your requirements are met and your event is an enjoyable one.

The Stanneylands Restaurant

The elegant oak panelled fine dining restaurant is very much in demand and continues to win accolades including 2AA Rosettes for its fine cuisine. Enjoy a pre-dinner drink served in the Calico Café Bar whilst perusing a menu renowned for both its innovative ideas and traditional values. The restaurant offers contemporary and English fayre using only the finest and freshest ingredients available, prepared to the very highest standards by our award winning Chef and his team.

calico café · bar

For a more relaxed place to eat, drink and meet with friends, Calico Café Bar is located in the hotel's airy conservatory and provides a range of light bites and a wide selection of Champagnes, wines by the glass, beers, hot beverages and of course our sumptuous afternoon tea.
