

Zeavola's Philosophy

A desire to develop a true boutique resort in Thailand that provides a unique experience to guests from around the world, Zeavola Resort was built on that desire with a dream, a clear concept and vision.

We have a special team who share their knowledge with each other. This collective pool of talents is as natural as breathing and forms the foundation of all that is Zeavola.

A team of dedicated individuals serve, help, support and please our valued guests. Along with our well-experienced management, all employees must undergo continuous education in their specialized fields to guarantee that their skills remain finely honed. A blend of genuine Thai hospitality with modern service practices.

We select the best with genuine and positive attitudes.

We listen to our guests and employees, and never forget that they have a choice.
